4. [redacted]) Talked with Mr. Naftalin and Mrs. Murray, on the staff of the House Select Committee on Government Research. Our conversation had to do with Mrs. Murray's inquiry Friday to the Joint Publications Research Service (JPRS). I advised Naftalin and Mrs. Murray of CIA interest in JPRS and suggested that after I obtained the answers to several questions which they had posed, they deal directly with [redacted] who would be happy to provide the Committee with information on JPRS translation activity. (See Memo for the Record.)
